

London AFT presents...

So you're a Systemic Psychotherapist ... inviting stories about personal and professional influences on our work as systemic practitioners.

Presented by

Sharon Bond and Jane Dutton

Thursday 25th March 2010 at 6:00 – 9:00 pm

Baden Powell House, 65- 67 Queen's Gate, London, SW7 5JS

£25

The evening includes a brief AGM of London AFT and refreshments before the Conversation begins at 6:45 pm

Jane and Sharon will share some of the theories, values and beliefs that have shaped the way they "do" systemic psychotherapy. Jane entered the discipline in the mid 1980s and Sharon in the early 1990s. Their conversation will address the interweaving of ideas that have influenced the discipline of systemic psychotherapy over the years. It will also invite the audience to think about how these ideas have contributed to what they have become, and how their own evolution has influenced the discipline. Within a frame of appreciating hybridity and uncertainty, we will discuss how our confluence of narratives can shape future practice. Please see AFT website (AFT Branch List) for biopics of presenters.
